Notes
HUSBAND- Francis Bell After the war Francis purchased property at Dublin on which he built a fine home in 1873 called Rockwood. Presently, Rockwood Manor is a bed and breakfast operated by Frank Drummond, a great grandson. Francis Bell was one of the largest and most successful graziers in the South, and was the first in Virginia to ship fat cattle direct to Europe. find-a-grave #37956086 WIFE - Sarah James Kent Find-a-grave #37230275: Sarah James Kent, daughter of James Randal Kent, married Francis Bell, a cattle buyer from Staunton, in 1855. Together Sarah and Francis had four surviving children: twin sons, James Randal Kent Bell and Samuel Hays Bell in 1858, a daughter, Mary Louisa Bell in 1861, and Francis "Frank" Bell in 1864.
